INTRODUCTION

Not sure how to remove and replace the SIM card in your Motorola Moto G4 plus? This guide will show you how!
🔧 TOOLS:

- Spudger (1)

Step 1 — SIM Card

- Insert a fingernail or a spudger into the notch on bottom edge of the phone near the charging port.

- Pry the back cover away from the body of the phone.

Step 2

- Continue to gently lift the back cover until all plastic clips have been released.

- Remove the back cover.

- 📌 To reinstall the back cover, align the cover over the body and gently press all around the edges until you feel the clips snap into place.
